

GMV MINERALS INC. COMMENCES DRILLING AT DAISY CREEK PROJECT IN LANDER COUNTY, NEVADA

VANCOUVER, BC, September 10, 2024 – GMV Minerals Inc. (the “Company” or “GMV”) (TSX-V: GMV) (OTCQB: “GMVMF”) is pleased to announce that it has commenced drilling at its Daisy Creek lithium/uranium project in Lander County, Nevada. The Company has engaged Nevada-based Harris Exploration Drilling and Associates Inc. to commence its initial drill program at the Daisy Creek project. Harris Exploration has decades of successful drill exploration experience spanning across the Americas on all types of projects.

Ian Klassen, President, remarked “We are pleased to be drill testing the Daisy Creek project and to be doing so with Harris Exploration, a highly reputable and experienced company that is very familiar with this type of geology”. The Company’s initial reverse circulation drill program will be approximately six holes from six different set ups totaling ~3500 feet. The program is designed to test the most prospective lithium targets as defined by the most recent geophysical, field work and historical information.
